Catherine was the first full-length work of fiction produced by William Makepeace Thackeray. It first appeared in serialized installments in Fraser's Magazine between May 1839 and February 1840 as a satire on the popular Newgate school of crime fiction based on the life of Catherine Hayes, an eighteenth-century criminal who was burned at the stake in 1726 for murdering her husband. Thackeray developed a sneaking kindness for his heroine, and the novel made Catherine and her roguish companions seem rather appealing, which was far from the author's intention.
